

How to Get What you Want

- A. Desire leads all action.
  - A. In macrocosmic sense Desire leads to manifestation of Universe.
  - B. With individual leads to all activity.
  - C. Desire therefore an essential principle.
- II. One may be a slave of or master over desire.
  - A. The average individual is a slave to his desires.
    - 1. To attain freedom desire in this sense must be master.
  - B. The few use desire as their servant.
    - 2. For these desire is not an impediment.
- III. There is a regular technique for using Desire as a power.
  - A. Formulate the desire and hold it as a definite directed thought.
  - B. Eliminate all other desires that conflict with the one chosen.
    - 1. Contradictory desires mutually inhibit realization of each other.
    - 2. Through contradictory desire one suffers as one desire must be sacrificed while the other is realized.
  - C. Be prepared to meet the law of compensation. Everything must be paid for.
  - D. Renounce the Desire after it has been formulated and directed.
    - 1. This makes a vacuum into which the object of desire may pour.
      - (a) Illustrate.
        - Letter-writer
        - Hindu prime-minister and Lakshmi.
        - Creative mathematics.
    - 2. Renouncing desire places one above the Desire and he becomes a magnet which attracts things.
    - 3. He who does not renounce has beggar consciousness and he cannot command things.
- IV. Since all desire is fulfilled and the law of compensation is inviolate, man finally learns to choose his desires wisely.
  - A. Until that lesson is learned the student must use the ordinary experiences.
- V. The wise man finally reaches the point where he is content with the Universe as it is.
  - B. The life of such a one becomes the pure expression of God Desire.
- VI. Keys as means of scientific use of Desire power.

"Human beings as they are now constituted are unable to be very happy, because, no matter how much they have, they want more."
Edison.