In our tending toward specialization we have divided the functions of the Priesthood. In olden times the Priesthood <sup>were</sup> the scholars and philosophers. In the middle ages/it was the church and particularly the monasteries that were the custodians of knowledge.

In a very broad and fundamental sense the function of the Priesthood has to do with the intuition on one hand and on the other.

Amoral, dominated by a sense of hunger is at the root of Life in a higher and lower sense. Life, as the will to survive, is at the base of the living process. Jesus says, "who seeks his life shall lose it", he who seeks his life in this lower sentient life loses it. He who loses his life finds that he has not lost his self identity. The transition moment may seem, for the moment, that one has to forego, he gives himself completely.

He has found the key to happiness that transcenes the law of periodicity.

The Priesthood in its broad sense represents generals who lead in this battle of--

Forces of Light are as contagious as darkness .

"When the disciples ready the Master appears" is literally true.

The most particular task of this group is mental unfoldment.

The mystery of Judas is the mystery of the earth man, it is the personal man who betrays the Divine man. When the personal man becomes white not black then the golden fires play.

Would you become impersonal then you must be selflessness and generosity.

Could you recognize me if I were to align my consciousness with yours.

Any one of you who penetrates beyond the 4th. point of this Priesthood have that opportunity.

Let go the old , they lead you to the deseert of lon&liness. Climb, Climb, Climb,

We require of you not only that which you do but that which you do not do. The sins of ~~ommission~~ are greater than that of ~~ommission~~.

Then we may intromit you into another world where <sup>there is</sup> undying consciousness. Where people never change for they are one with truth, they will grow and expand.

The church teaches the doctrine of the original sin of man. We teach the doctrine of the original goodness of man.

You must turn in until no noise can disturb your meditation.

Music is a power of the Spirit, it is closer to spirit than anything else.

T<sup>O</sup> Gene: Play for us and I will help you , turn within yourself.

Our consciousness will not lower itself beyond a certain point which is purely consciousness. You have to open your consciousness to let it come in.

You must posit your mind in your soul, when you do we will light the flame and then the knowledge of all past incarnations will be yours. The mind is the garment of the soul. Soul is in a way the central nucleous of the mind. To posit ~~your~~ mind in the Soul is to draw in and in until it seems as if there was none of the man left. ~~Soul~~

Soul is like the yolk of the egg, when the yolk is impregnated the chicken is born. Mind posited in the soul impregnates it, for the mind impregnates. Say; "I posit my mind within my soul", with power and continue to do it.

We of the Great White Brotherhood are never ungrateful for even the least.

Regarding the Children's Section: The children become the torch bearers of the next generation.

Ques: Could we correlate Will with Desire? Will and desire opposite poles.

Ans: Atma is the center, Buddhi is the veil.

TO Laura: I have visited ~~you~~ many, many times with you. Do you recognize me: I am interested.

Who am I?

Some answers to "who am I" were: The Great Mother, the Master the Self, Consciousness

I am all those things "Atma" I am one of those individual forms of Atma who is linked with the Great Hierarchy of your Solar--

Their mind cannot catch my mind when it touches iteyet.

In the time of spaceless realm where we work, action is instantaneous.

This center ( top of head) must awaken first.

When the personal consciousness is linked with the Egoic Self then that is the Chela and the Master may speak thru him.

Shankara's function is different. The sage speaks direct.

There are no little things.

Yogi explain the group soul, the descent of a spirit into matter, there is a good deal given in literature. Unitary consciousness is not attained in one fell swoop, there are many steps.

Words of Candidate in Offering his Sortcomings.

"I come to you as to the Ambassador of the Christ and in all humbleness I offer all my sins and short-comings; those that I remember and those I have forgotten. Accept them from me and consume them in the Divine Flame which thou art."

Kneel before Yogi.
