

Running Commentary Following Gertrude's Death

Part 43 of 53

Franklin Merrell-Wolff

October 1, 1981

Seth left this morning, October the 1st, to go to Bishop to attend to some business and hopefully secure another projector lamp for our moving picture projector. I have been looking at the moving picture record which Gertrude and I took during the time of several trips ranging from 1959 to 1978. I have been looking at the record of these trips most evenings even though I was all alone. I get a certain relief from the tension that I carry more or less in the chest region. It carries me back to those very happy and interesting days, and I find it a real help. During the last few days I have not had this because our last projector lamp had failed.
