

Sept. 14, 1953

Sadhana

1. Distinction between Prakriti and Shakti.

2. Re sin and disgusting material in the nature.

Do not treat in sense of censor and policeman.

View as a contrast of Harmony and disharmony.

Let autonomous material rise into consciousness then make an acceptance or rejection and surrender.

Surrendering takes the place of willing by the ego.

"That God himself is the Guru, you will find when knowledge comes to you; you will see how every little circumstance within you and without you has been subtly planned and brought about by infinite wisdom to carry out the natural processes of the Yoga, how the internal and external movements are arranged and brought together to work on each other, so as to work out the imperfection and work in the perfection."