Dear Yogi,

I'm sorry I missed you when you were last in Phoenix! Will it be convenient for me to visit on April 24th (Thursday)?

I would love to see you. Also a friend would come with me, a man named Bill Stranger. Bill has studied your books and is a personal student of Dr. Free John. He would love to meet you. And I think you would enjoy meeting him. He has a powerful mind and an incredible fund of knowledge.

If the 24th is inconvenient, Monday the 28th is my second choice. Please have one of your cronies drop a card to let me know.

I met Chris English at the Aurobindo Seminar here in Phoenix last week. We had an incredible conversation. It came out that we both profoundly appreciate you. Chris is quite a fellow! I'll bet you've had some interesting conversation with him!

Finally, Yogi, please hold off on your Mahasamadhi — it'll keep.

I'm hoping to see you this summer. There is a great deal we'd enjoy talking about.

Also, I'd like the chance to string
some gopher wire in your garden
during the summer.

Your friendly

Jim Mugridge

PS — please use this Address rather than the one on the envelope.

Feel free to have someone call collect
to let me know about the 24th.

Thanks!
